Bio for:

James A. Williams

James A. Williams is a young and very gifted piano player, who wows his listeners with his musical talents. James has the ability to play by ear and is self taught. His debut album – A Moment With The Classics, features Fantasie Impromptu which has become his trade mark. In November 2011 James auditioned for America's Got Talent in addition to performing for various local charities. He has also played at the Tampa Yacht Club, The Tampa Palms Golf and Country Club and for Temple Grandin at the CARD annual conference in Orlando. James is available for bookings and would love to make your special event an inspirational one – please contact us today at AMomentWithTheClassics@gmail.com. All that remains is to hear him play …