

SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE

Autism Innovations & Global Impact Conference

Els for Autism Foundation is seeking corporate, organization and individual sponsors for the Autism Innovations & Global Impact Conference: RE-creating RECREATION as a Supplemental Intervention for Individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder on March 23 – 25, 2023.

The conference will focus on demonstrating how RECREATION can be used as a platform for other therapeutic interventions. Leaders in recreation programs and services, dedicated to improving the lives of individuals on the autism spectrum, will be featured. The conference will provide tools and best practices for organizations, providers, and practitioners interested in initiating or expanding recreation services to individuals with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and other developmental disorders.

Topics covered will include recreation activities and experiences in the areas of:
Sports | Fitness Healthy Living | Wellbeing Arts | Leisure

The Autism Innovations and Global Impact Conference: RE-creating RECREATION as a Supplemental Intervention for Individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder will be hosted by the Els for Autism Foundation®. Els for Autism Foundation was established in 2009 by World Golf Hall of Famer and four-time major champion, Ernie Els, his wife Liezl, and board chairman, Marvin R. Shanken. The Els' son, Ben, is impacted by ASD. The Els Center of Excellence, located in Jupiter, Florida, is the hub from which world-class programs and services are provided both in-person and globally via Telehealth.
